

About

We are law and planning professionals with experience in land use, zoning, and planning. We are passionate about creating places that are vibrant, sustainable and equitable, and we hold client service in the highest regard.

Calfee Zoning is a national zoning consultancy with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, New York and Washington, D.C.

As advisers to both local governments and property owners, we provide a unique and invaluable perspective to assist you in crafting a zoning ordinance that better achieves a balance between private and public benefits and burdens, which results in more effective and defensible zoning regulations. All of our professionals have public and private sector experience.

Our local government experts use our legal, planning, and experience to identify and eliminate the barriers to your vision and draft clear, consistent, usable, and defensible land-use regulations that reflect your vision and achieve desired outcomes. Additionally, we audit and manage regulatory risk.
